

DISABILITY TEACHES US: LISTEN TO AND LEARN FROM YOUTH

FACILITATED BY CLARK MATTHEWS, ROOTED IN RIGHTS AND CARRIE BASAS, OEO
STUDENT PANELISTS: A.J. GAMMONS-REESE, ANNA OHRT, AND KENASSA SARKA

As we come into the session, please chat a short introduction:

- What have you learned from students in your life?

Roots of Inclusion

WELCOME AND ATTENDANCE

- Attendance check in (especially for clock hours)
 - Take a moment to ground and make this an accessible space for yourself

We would like to acknowledge that we are on the unceded ancestral lands of the Duwamish people. A people that are still here, continuing to honor and bring to light their ancient heritage since Time Immemorial.

To learn more about the importance of Washington's Tribal Nations, explore the Since Time Immemorial Curriculum.
